The office action mailed November 19, 2004, identified a four-way restriction requirement. Attorney for applicant elects group 1, claims 1-9 with traverse. Applicant believes that claims 1-23 could be searched and examined in one application without undue hardship on the office. If this argument is not deemed persuasive, then claims 10-23 will be pursued one or more divisional applications.

New claims 24-38 have been added to the application. They fall within group 1 (a method of approving a document) and should be examined with originally presented claims 1-9.
